VOLUME CIX.--NO. 83. ALEXANDRIA, VA., MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 6, 1908. PRICE 2 CENTS

A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe, obstinate, hang-on, chronic coughs, bronchial and laryngeal troubles, and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering hang-on coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs, especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach), it is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric (stomach) acidity."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood curing blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings and old sores, or ulcers.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the native medicinal roots composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.

INDUSTRIAL CONDITIONS IN THE SOUTH.

President W. W. Finley, of the Southern Railway Company, who has been looking carefully into commercial and industrial conditions in the southern States, was asked Saturday for a summary of the result of his inquiries.

"While business conditions in the southern States are not as favorable as we would like to have them," said Mr Finley, "I think the situation in that section is fully as favorable to an early revival of prosperity as that in any other part of the country. Throughout the South, the banking institutions are in sound condition, and, although their managers are generally pursuing careful and conservative policies, sound business enterprises are generally able to obtain all of the credit needed. From most localities come reports that southern farmers are in a prosperous condition, and have substantial bank accounts.

"The question of how soon a revival may be expected to begin is one which no man can answer with certainty, for the reason that some of the reasons, for the continuance of the business depression are psychological."

LYNCHINGS.

John Burr, a young negro, was lynched near Wesson, Miss., yesterday, by thirty men, for the murder of a white boy. About dark Saturday night, according to Burr's confession and the story of an eyewitness, he was fishing in a mill pond when Earl Smith, twelve years old, son of J. W. Smith, a prosperous planter, approached and began a conversation. Burr was an employe of Smith's father, and he said to the boy: "Look up. Look at the bird!" As young Smith gazed skyward the negro shot him in the back of the head with a shotgun, but said it was an accident. He threw the boy's body into the mill pond and started to escape, but was soon captured and taken from the sheriff's man by a mob.

Walter Clayton, a negro, who was serving a sentence of imprisonment at the stockade of the Hand Lumber Company, for manslaughter, late Saturday afternoon assaulted Mrs. Joseph White, twenty years old, and was lynched by a mob of seventy-five men, outside the limits of Bay Minette, Ala., Saturday night.

NEGRO KILLED.

With deliberate aim Mrs. Tessie Jones, of Montgomery, Ala., early yesterday morning shot and killed Nelson Croom, a negro, who was in a life and death struggle with her father. The ball was fired at a distance of two feet into the eye of the intruder.

About 3 o'clock yesterday morning Mrs. Jones heard a noise outside the window. She awoke her sister, who called their father, while Mrs. Jones secured an old revolver. As the old man opened the blinds the negro grabbed him and tried to pull him from the window. He had the white man well outside, when the woman ran to the window, rested her arm and pulled the trigger. Twice the weapon snapped, but the third time it exploded, the ball burying itself in the skull of the negro.

It is evident that the negro knew that only the young women and the old man were in the house.

RIOTING IN LISBON.

The elections in Lisbon yesterday, which were conducted peacefully, with the exception of minor disorders in some of the disaffected districts, were followed last night by serious rioting, which was only put down by most vigorous action on the part of the police and the troops.

The rioting broke out in different parts of the city, as though by a preconcerted plan. Troops, which had been patrolling, and others that had been held in reserve, were immediately ordered into action, and they repeatedly charged the mobs that in places filled the streets, but without effect. The rioters used clubs, stones, and whatever other weapon was at hand and finally the troops were obliged to fire upon them, killing and wounding several persons.

This determined action had the desired effect, and shortly the mobs were well dispersed.

ATTEMPT TO BURN A CHURCH.

Miss Mary Morse, organist of the Universalist Church in Bath, Me., foiled a desperate attempt to blow up the edifice with gas an hour before services began yesterday afternoon. When she arrived at the church she noticed that a lamp was missing from the organ, and detected an ordor of gas. Looking under the platform upon which the organ rested, Miss Morse saw flames and called the janitor, who put out the fire with a few buckets of water. An investigation showed that a gas pipe leading beneath the organ had been disconnected and a lighted lamp placed beneath to touch off the fluid as soon as it filled the compartment. A basket of shavings was also there.

There is nothing better than Kodol for dyspepsia, indigestion, sour stomach, belching of gas and nervous headache. It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

MONDAY EVENING, APR. 6, 1908.

AN EXTRA twist was given to the gag Saturday by the republican leaders who are frantically trying to torture the democrats in the House into speechless submission. Mr. Dalzell and Speaker Cannon brought in a rule that makes a motion for a recess take precedent over a motion for adjournment, makes it mandatory that Senate amendments to House bills shall be considered all together instead of separately and gives the Speaker authority to reject any motion which he regards as dilatory. Under this rule, whenever the democrats fight an adjournment the House will simply recess until next day. This will be convenient, because it will prevent the democrats from forcing roll calls on approval of the journal and on adjournment. If this new rule does not serve the purpose of the leaders in putting the democrats out of business the next move may be even more drastic. That something desperate will have to be done is now admitted by all the republicans, for the democrats "simply won't listen to reason;" they keep on fighting. As the relentless filibuster continues the situation of the republicans is becoming almost intolerable. In spite of the gag and all the threats of the majority, the minority is drawing the attention of the country to the fact that the republicans are determined to ignore the legislation demanded by the President, and that the boasted loyalty of the lower branch of Congress to Mr. Roosevelt is the most flagrant hypocrisy. At the same time the fight of the democrats for the abolition of the duty on wood pulp has stirred up a sentiment everywhere that demands tariff revision, and the republican members are being deluged with letters and telegrams on this subject. Furthermore, in spite of the gag and all repressive rules, the democrats can still tremendously obstruct the business of the House. This was proved when, at adjournment Saturday afternoon, after a big day's fighting, absolutely nothing had been done except to get the District of Columbia bill partly read for amendment. The democrats seem perfectly able to carry out their threat to "keep Congress in session until the dog days," and if they do lots of the republicans will be kept in Washington while their opponents play thunder with their fences at home in the early campaign. The democrats continue to declare that all they want is to have the republicans give consideration to the things recommended in the special messages of the President, but this Mr. Cannon and his lieutenants won't allow.

THE proceedings of the meeting of the city democratic committee last Saturday night prove conclusively that thirst for office is not prevalent at present in Alexandria. Mayor Paff was declared the candidate to succeed himself from the fact that no one appeared as his competitor. One citizen announced his purpose to run against a present member of the Board of Aldermen from the Second ward, three signified their intention of running for the Common Council from the Second ward to fill two vacancies and one in the Fourth against the present members. This shows that, so far as complimentary positions are concerned, but few persons desire them.

ALL the big beef packers at the Chicago stockyards and the farmers of Illinois, Iowa and other western States are engaged in a battle royal over the price of beef, pork and mutton, and the consumers all over the United States are getting the worst of it—just as the innocent bystanders usually do. The packers having boosted prices to the consumers, are now endeavoring to beat down the prices they pay to the farmers. To the lay delegate it looks as though the beef trust was trying to play the middle against both ends, gaining a profit from both the consumer and the farmer.

THE Wilmington (N. C.) Messenger, established as a morning paper by a stock company nineteen years ago, has suspended publication. The newspaper business is not what it once was.

CHANCELLOR DAY says there is no danger of the rich getting all the money, as their "fool" sons will put it in circulation. And they seem to be doing so.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., April 6.

Through the exertions of Representative Carlin an experimental tobacco station will soon be established near Louisa, Virginia, where experiments in growing and curing tobacco will be conducted. The government has leased the necessary grounds for a period of seven years.

Senator Martin and Representative Carlin last week drove over the route by which the railroads enter this city from the south and inspected the site on which the Pennsylvania Railroad Company wishes to erect a sub station. This site is on government land on Fourteenth street while Senator Martin and and Mr. Carlin want the site on the railroad's own land on Seventh street. They will oppose the former site as no convenient for travelers and will recommend the Seventh street site to Congress.

Owing to a difference of opinion as to the form of procedure, Mr. Holmes Conrad, representing creditors of Virginia, today withdrew, temporarily, as one of the counsel for the State of Virginia in her suit to compel West Virginia to pay one third of her State debt amounting to over $30,000,000. Attorney General Anderson of Virginia then associated Randolph Harrison of Lynchburg, Va., with himself in Conrad's place. To both changes, the U. S. Supreme Court gave its approval. Arguments are to be made this week regarding the appointment of a master to take testimony in the case and the nature of his powers.

Appearing as representatives of the "plaintiffs" of the Hepburn bill, proposing to amend the Sherman anti-trust law, Seth Low and Prof. J. W. Jenks, of New York, today made legal arguments before the House committee on the judiciary in defence of the bill. Mr. Littlefield, chairman of the sub-committee, considering the Hepburn bill, asked Prof. Jenks to explain in detail the information which it was proposed to get from corporations in return for the privileges of pooling and otherwise that the Hepburn bill would give them. Prof. Jenks thought that the President would have a right to require data about the stocks and bonds of the corporations. "Do you claim that we have the legislative right to any information that has no relation to interstate commerce?" inquired Mr. Littlefield. "You have if he general welfare demands it," replied Prof. Jenks. Mr. Littlefield asked the professor to include just one case in the records where the Supreme Court had taken the "public welfare" clause of the constitution as the basis for extending the enumerated rights given to Congress.

Chairman Boutell, of the special committee investigating the Lilley charges of corruption of Congressman by the Electric Boat Company, administered a rebuke today to Representative Lilly, author of the charges. He referred to Lilley having made public certain affidavits and papers before the committee had considered or read the documents in question. "I want it understood," said Boutell, "that nothing is really evidence in this case until it has been spoken or read in the open before this committee and placed in the record of the hearings." Chairman Boutell expressed the hope that this advance publicity would not be indulged in again. Representative George A. L. Lond, of Michigan, was the first witness, being called at his own request in order that he could refute certain allegations made against him.

When the morning session ended, Lilley was called a liar to his face by Robert Wooley, a newspaper correspondent. Wooley had given testimony reflecting on Lilley regarding his action in connection with a piece of gossip about a member of the House. Lilley took the stand and swore that Wooley's testimony was false. After the meeting, Wooley met Lilley in the corridor and said: "Of all the liars I have ever met you are the worst." "By your words today," replied Lilley, "you destroy my faith in human nature."

President Roosevelt indicated today to a delegation of Congressmen that he would give the employes of the navy yard Saturday half-holidays during July, August and September. The law does not give the men who make and repair ships in the yards any half-holidays during the summer, and for the last four or five years the President has issued executive orders granting them the breathing spell at the week end, which was given by Congress to those who work in the government departments.

The President was today informed by Representative Hill, of Connecticut that a poll of the house which has just made, shows that the Aldrich bill will fail of passage. The Senate committee on the judiciary today rejected all of the measures that have been introduced designed to give to prohibition States the right to control shipments of liquor entering their borders in interstate commerce. In place of these bills, which were turned down on the ground of their unconstitutionality, the committee today unanimously decided to report a measure which will prohibit railroads and express companies from accepting packages of liquors for shipment into a prohibition State "cash on delivery."

The Supreme Court today side stepped giving a decision of the constitutionality of the collateral inheritance, or transfer tax of New York, passed in 1903. The court held it had no jurisdiction in the case of the Comptroller of the State of New York against the estate of the late Joseph Stickney, in which the constitutionality of the law was raised, is being claimed the law was illegally passed.

Woodside, former chief clerk to the adjutant-general's office and aide on the staff of ex-Governor Warfield, was cleared up yesterday by the finding of his body in the Severn river, near Annapolis. Coroner Feldmeyer, of Annapolis, gave a verdict of accidental death, but many friends of Colonel Woodside believe he committed suicide.

At midnight Saturday night the Fifth Avenue Hotel, one of the most famous hostelries of New York, ended its existence of half a century. It was a jolly, half-sorrowful party that gathered to bid the old place good-by. The army appropriation bill was completed by the Senate committee on military affairs Saturday and will be reported today. It will carry about $15,000,000 more than was provided in the bill as it passed the House, making a total of approximately $100,000,000. An item of about $7,000,000 was included to increase the pay of the army, revenue cutter service and marine corps, but excluding enlisted men of the navy, in accordance with the provisions of the bill which was passed by the Senate.

Policemen by day and burglars by night, with expert accomplices for their assistants, is the serious charge preferred against four patrolmen of Philadelphia, who Saturday were arrested upon information furnished by a boy thief. Two of the policemen broke down and confessed last night when they were confronted with several thousand dollars' worth of goods taken from their homes, but the other two refused to commit themselves to any statement. Other arrests will be made and the investigation promises to lead to the most sensational exposure of demoralized police conditions that has ever been made in that city.

In reply to a question by Mr. Littlefield, Mr. Schieffelin said he was willing the Hepburn bill, amending the Sherman anti-trust act, should contain in specific terms provisions making the boycott and blacklist unlawful, and Mr. Seth Low, of New York, president of the Civic Federation, concurred.

Fifteen families were rendered homeless and a score of houses badly damaged in a fire which yesterday morning destroyed the plant of the W. R. Francis, & Brother, sash, door and blind factory, in Richmond. The total damage is estimated at $40,000. All the contents of fifty houses were moved into the street on the advice of the fire chief, as it seemed that the fire would be spread by a driving north wind, which thwarted the efforts of the fire fighters. Men, women and children trembled with cold as half clad they stood about the streets or ran up and down screaming that the town was afire. The fire is believed by some to have been of incendiary origin.

A dispatch from Gate City says James Moorefield, a justice of the peace of Clinchport, was shot dead at a railroad camp, occupied by negroes, at Speers Ferry, yesterday morning. His watch and pistol and money had been taken. Two men in the camp were arrested, and a posse started in pursuit of Brown. He was captured in Tennessee, six miles away, yesterday afternoon, and all three men are now in jail.

PRIME MINISTER RESIGNS.

Prime Minister Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman has tendered his resignation to King Edward and his majesty has accepted it.

Sir Henry's resignation caused little or no surprise. It was generally understood for weeks past that he would seek relief from office, his health making his resumption or leadership out of the question, and his only chance of prolonging his life being to free himself from the cares of State.

Sir Edward has summoned the Right Hon. Herbert Asquith, chancellor of the exchequer, to Biarritz, thus following constitutional precedent, and Great Britain will be without a premier until his majesty formally intrusts him with the conduct of the nation's affairs.

The members of the ministry, in accordance with custom, tender their resignation on such an occasion as the present, but it is understood that they agree to serve under Mr. Asquith, although some reshuffling is inevitable. An opportunity will probably be provided to place Winston Churchill in a cabinet office, that of Secretary of State for the colonies.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of my beloved child, FRANK R. MAYHUGH, who died April 5, 1902.

Six lonely years have passed since I have seen his face,
I think of him just as he sat in his old familiar place.
How I missed his tender accents,
How his love I fondly crave,
When my life work here is over,
Let me rest beside his grave.

By his mother, MARION MAYHUGH.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The British Cabinet.

London, April 6.—Chancellor of the Exchequer Herbert Asquith left today for Biarritz, southwestern France, to receive from King Edward the offer of the British premiership, to accept it and to hurry back to London, resuming at once the duties he has been performing during the long illness of his predecessor, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman.

Arrangements have been made for the postponement of debates in the House of Commons on several important matters while the new premier reorganizes his cabinet. Few politicians think his government can last long. Many believe the substitution of aggressive policy for Sir Henry's conciliatory attitude will result in a change of administrations within a few weeks.

The liberals—Asquith's party—are in a majority, but there is serious disaffection in their own ranks, and whenever the malcontents throw their strength to the conservatives the Asquith cabinet must fall.

Battle for Local Option.

Springfield, Ill., April 6.—Will the prayers of the women and the pleas of the children of Illinois prevail tomorrow in the battle of ballots between the saloon forces and local option? Today was brought to a close the most strenuous political campaign Illinois has experienced since civil war days. From Cairo to Dunleath, from Danville to Quincy, in two thousand cities, towns and townships, there are prayer meetings in the homes, parades of women and children through the streets, public meetings in the open air and public halls. Seventeen of the counties voted them out already. Thousands of dollars have been spent in newspaper advertising. The Manufacturers and Dealers' Club, including makers and jobbers of liquors, have sent out a vast amount of display advertising. In each town the Local Option League and the Liberty League, the latter representing the anti-prohibition movement, have filled the newspapers with pages of paid matter.

The Thaw Divorce Case.

New York, April 6.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw's formal application for the appointment of a referree to hear suit for the annulment of her marriage to Harry Kendall Thaw, was made to Justice Hendricks in special term of the Supreme Court this afternoon by Attorney Daniel O'Reilly. Her request was assented to by Attorney A. Russell Peabody for Thaw.

Evelyn's complaint sets out that she married Thaw April 4, 1905 at Pittsburg but on account of alleged lunacy he was incapable of contracting a valid marriage. Thaw's mother, Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw, is made a defendant to the suit. Peabody's answer, in Thaw's behalf denied Evelyn allegation and that a bona fide defense will be set up.

Killed at a Fire.

New York, April 6.—One dead and twenty injured, several probably fatally, is the casualty list in a fire which practically destroyed the four-story tenement at 470 Pearl street, today. Fifteen horses also perished.

The flames melted gas pipes in the cellar of the building and nearly all the victims were overcome by the fumes while clinging to the fire escapes. Several fell to the street or yard in the rear of the building. Miss Julia Isola, aged 22, was coming down the fire escape when a burst of flame from the second-story window set her hair afire. She jumped and was instantly killed.

Murder and Suicide.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 6.—Samuel L. Gardner, 60, a wealthy McKees Rock coal operator and formerly borough engineer, early today shot and instantly killed pretty Dorothy Bradley, 16 years old, and then inflicted injuries upon himself which will probably cause his death. Gardner, who is one of the wealthiest and most prominent men in the community, is said to have been infatuated with the girl, who was the chum of his fifteen-year-old daughter. Last night Miss Bradley accompanied a young man to the village church. This is said to have infuriated Gardner, and early this morning he purchased a revolver and called at the Bradley home.

A Royal Welcome.

Vienna, April 6.—The Count and Countess Szechenyi were royally welcomed today at Ormezoe, the count's ancestral seat. The provisional aristrocracy turned out from all the neighboring villages, the inhabitants of Ormezoe thronged, cheering about the carriage as the couple drove up the main street of the little town and the peasantry for miles around, on hand for the occasion, joined in the merry making. The houses were draped in the Hungarian and American colors and flowers were fairly showered upon the count and his bride.

Nine Persons Killed.

London, April 6.—Nine persons were killed, five were probably fatally injured and a score suffered less serious hurts by the collapse early today of the New York Hotel annex in Oxford street. The structure was old and dilapidated, and its demolition was to have begun today. It was still occupied, however, by members of the hotel staff, and fifty were buried in the ruins when it went down. The wreckage has been thoroughly ransacked and it is believed every one is accounted for. It is thought a gas explosion caused the crash.

Japanese Bond.

Tokio, April 6.—The finance department has issued a statement pointing out the carelessness of the alarm over redemption of its bonds, the first installment of which is now being paid. The tax returns for the year ended March 31, the statement adds, shows practically no arrears, the correspondents exceeding estimates by 50,000,000 yen.

Rioting in Lisbon.

Lisbon, April 5.—Fierce election riots are raging here. The mob is tearing up the pavements for missiles with which to fight the troops. There has already been considerable shooting and many casualties, though the number of dead and wounded is as yet uncertain. More than 100 arrests have been made.

Unfounded Rumor.

New York, Apr. 6.—At the offices of J. P. Morgan & Co. it was stated this morning that the report of the Exchange Telegraph Company in London, sent by its Rome correspondent, to the effect that Morgan is seriously ill, is not true. They say he is in his usual good health.

Attacked by Japanese.

Mukden, April 6.—Four Japanese were overpowered, arrested and turned over to the Japanese consulate today for entering the American consulate and attacking the members of the native staff. Chinese police, summoned by Consul General Straight, made the arrests. From the Japanese consul no apology has been received and diplomatic action is expected. Though there has been ill feeling between the Japanese and Russians on one side and the Americans on the other as a result of America's insistence on Chinese supremacy in Manchuria, it is believed today's disturbance was due to a personal quarrel.

The Gould Divorce Case.

New York, April. 6.—Charges as sensational as the counter accusations made by his wife are said to be contained in the answer made by Howard Gould to the suit of his wife, Katherine Clemmons Gould, for separation, which will be filed in the Supreme Court this afternoon. It is believed that Mrs. Gould's lawyers will move in court today to strike out certain portions of the answer. Should they succeed it will result in the allegations made by Gould becoming public.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Apr. 6.—There was little change in market conditions during the first hour from those that prevailed in the late trading on Saturday. The news of the proposition for the extension of the Erie notes was the only marked influence and it had some effect this morning in bringing in a little outside buying. At the close of the hour the market was generally strong and fairly active.

Sixtieth Congress.

Washington, April 6.

SENATE.

Senator William H. Milton, appointed by Governor Broward to fill the vacancy due to the death of Senator William James Bryan, of Florida, received the oath as a senator this morning. Senator Milton was escorted to the vice president's desk by his colleague, Senator Taliaferro. Senator Bryan, who was nominated to succeed Senator Mallory, died in Washington on March 22 d

The Senate passed a bill to reimburse depositors of the late Freedmans Savings and Trust Company. Any funds remaining unclaimed at the expiration of one year revert to the government. No fees may be accepted for collecting this money.

HOUSE.

Mr. Sterling, of Illinois, secured consideration of the new employers' liability bill in the House today under unanimous consent immediately after the reading of the journal.

Twenty minutes was allowed to each side for discussion of the measure.

The House passed the bill by a vote of 300 to 1, Mr. Littlefield, of Maine, casting the only negative vote.

Mr. Clayton, of the judiciary committee, which reported the measure, claimed great credit for the democrats for favorable action by the committee on the bill. He said, if the democrats had sided with the dissenting republicans, the bill would not have been reported to the House.

Mr. Littlefield opposed the bill on the ground that it is unconstitutional.

Mr. Williams of Mississippi, spoke a few minutes, claiming the democrats deserved great credit for the bill.

To this Floor Leader Payne, of the republicans, replied, "the gentleman from Mississippi and his party had no more to do with this bill than a little boy playing in the street. The republicans know what legislation they want. They want this and they are going to put it on the statute books. The gentleman from Mississippi can't fool this country."

The Market.

CONFERENCES.

In the Baltimore M. E. Conference in Washington Saturday Rev. C. W. Baldwin, of Baltimore, sprang a sensational resolution to withdraw the support of the Baltimore Conference from Dickinson and transfer a large endowment to the Woman's College of Baltimore. This brought about the most bitter and spirited debate during the present session of the conference. During the discussion charges of agnostic sympathies on the part of some of the authorities of Dickinson were made. It was also charged that the institution had forfeited its right to church support by taking advantage of the benefit of the Carnegie Foundation and declaring itself nonsectarian. At times the speeches became so acrimonious that Bishop Cranston took a hand and very sharply called the ministers to order. He deemed it necessary to rebuke some of the members for the bitterness of their addresses, and his rebuke had the desired effect. The endowment fund amounts to $155,108 02, and it yields an income of $7,902 61.

Dr. W. S. Edwards then moved that instead of taking immediate action on the resolutions they should be referred to a committee of seven to report on Monday. Dr. Richardson moved to amend by having the committee report at the next annual conference. This amendment was carried. Bishop Cranston will spoint the committee today.

Matters of routine business took up the rest of the day, and at night evangelistic services were held.

Assisted by three of the presiding elders, Bishop Cranston ordained a class of 12 ministers to be deacons and elders in the church yesterday afternoon at Wesley Church. Two of the 12 were ordained deacons, and the other 10 were made full elders.

The two candidates ordained to the order of deacons, were Rev. C. L. Hubbard and Rev. J. W. Flynn.

The candidates ordained were Rev. Frederick S. Mumford, Rev. John P. Haud, Rev. William C. Parrish, Rev. Edgar C. Powers, Rev. Richard H. K. Gill, Rev. William C. Harden, Rev. Elmer E. Pearce, Rev. Henry W. Bergen, Rev. Daniel E. Moylan and Rev. Conrad Hardecker.

A lively discussion was precipitated in the Methodist Protestant Conference at Snow Hill, Md., Saturday afternoon, over the recommendation of the committee on literature. The trouble grew out of an item directing the pastors throughout the conference to introduce the Methodist Protestant, the church paper, into the home of every member of the congregation through a personal canvass.

Rev. F. C. Klein after a heated debate moved to strike out this recomendation which was seconded, but there was such a storm of protest from the editor of the church organ that Mr. Klein finally withdrew his motion and accepted an amendment which modified the language of recommendation.

The balloting for delegates to the general conference was continued and it will not be before tonight that the list of 26 is completed. The ministerial delegates elected so far are: Revs. T. H. Lewis, J. M. Sheridan, F. T. Tagg, H. L. Elderdice, F. T. Little, J. M. Gill and J. W. Kirk. The lay delegates so far are: State Comptroller Herring, T. P. Fisher, Daniel Baker, W. O. Atwood, State Senator J. Frank Harper and L. W. Hurley. Six ministers and seven laymen are yet to be elected. Another ballot was taken in the afternoon, but the result will not be made known until Monday.

The conference accepted the invitation of Clarke Memorial Church, St. Paul and Twenty-seventh streets, Baltimore to hold its session there next April.

The following were recommended for ordination, and they were formally ordained yesterday morning. Revs. Carroll Maddox, James D. Smith, Eben N. Baldwin and W. L. Hoffman. Those licensed to administer the ordinances are Revs. B. L. Rice, H. B. Jester, W. M. Jett and George E. Bevans.

CITY DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

An adjourned meeting of the city democratic committee was held at the Opera House Cafe last Saturday night, Mr. Charles Beadheim, chairman, presided, and there were also present Messrs. Phillips, Rishell, Cook, Brill, Brent and Fisher.

It was decided to hold a primary in the Second and Fourth wards April 21 for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Board of Alderman and City Council. The primary will be in progress from noon until 7 o'clock p. m.

In the first ward Alderman J. M. Hill and Councilmen H. R. Burke and E. S. Leadbeater were declared the nominees. In the Second ward Alderman W. W. Ballenger will be opposed by Mr. Harrie White. For the Common Council in the Second ward the candidates will be Messrs. Robley D. Brumback, Howard W. Smith and Carroll H. May. Councilmen Henry Strauss and J. Y. Williams declining to stand for re-election. In the Third ward Alderman H. K Field and Councilmen R. L Monroe and J. T. Harrison were declared the nominees, they not having opposition. In the Fourth ward Alderman W. H. Sweeney was declared the nominee. The candidates for the Common Council will be C. B. Marshall, F. O. Spinks, the incumbents, and C. W. O'Meara

The expenses of the primary will be borne by the candidates. All tickets to be used will be furnished by the committee. The committee adjourned to meet April 15.

MR. DOWNING'S ADDRESS.

Mr. Robert L Downing, formerly an actor, delivered an interesting address yesterday afternoon in the Young People's Building of the M. E. Church South. The auditorium was packed to its fullest capacity. Among other things Mr. Downing said he had followed the profession of an actor for 32 years, during all which time he experienced uneasiness and a longing for something he did not possess. He had now found what satisfied the cravings of his immortal soul. Mr. Downing's address was at times flavored with pleasantry. He delivered a short address at the night service in the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and it is possible that he will join Rev. Mr. Bulla in a series of revival services in that church. At the meeting in the afternoon selections were rendered by the Masonic quartette composed of Messrs. George H. Evans, Marshall L. Dinwiddie, S. Frank Field and Kenneth Ogden. So many manifested an interest last night that it was decided to hold another service tonight.

"THE OAK FARM."

At the request of the managers of the Alexandria Free Kindergarten, the Elks' Dramatic Club, under the direction of Mr. A. D. Montier, will produce the comedy drama "Oak Farm" at the Opera House about the first of May, with the following cast: Silas Weatherby, owner of Oak Farm, Mr. Harry Fleischmann; Donald Weatherby, his eldest son, Mr. Harry B. Quinn; Joel Weatherby, his youngest son, Mr. H. Linden Wheatley; Jonathan A. Marsh, the village postmaster, Mr. Edward J. Fleming; Josiah Spudge, the district school teacher, Mr. David E Robey; Dr. Wilson Meredith, the village physician, Mr. J. Fred Birrell; Wellington Gray, a traveling salesman, Mr. Frank W. Smith; Mrs. Sarah Weatherby, Silas's wife, Mrs. H. Friedlander; Helen Wumbull, Silas's niece, Miss Marie Fannon; Cynthia Warner friend of the Weatherbys, Miss Ida N. Bruce; Sally Smart, child of a neighbor, Miss A. D Montier.

TRAIN DERAILED.

The second section of north bound train No. 36 of the Southern Railway was wrecked at Tye River, about 140 miles south of this city, at 8:40 o'clock last night. The train was running at the rate of 45 miles an hour when the accident occurred, and the escape of the crew without serious injuries is regarded as miraculous. The train, which is used for the transportation of vegetables, was following closely No. 36, and in passing Tye River it split the switch, causing the engine and seven of the cars to leave the track and turn over. Engineer Watkins, Fireman Garr and the flagman were on the engine, which, it is said, turned over twice. They received painful bruises, as did also Baggagemaster Mayhugh. The track was cleared as soon as possible, and in a few hours trains were again passing the scene of the accident.

PECULIAR FIND.

A man named Lucas, who fishes a seine in the Potomac, near this city, caught a large number of bass Saturday morning. He sold one to a business man on north Fairfax street and when it was cleaned it was found to contain a handsome watch charm about the size of a gold dollar. This is not more remarkable than the girl who lost a diamond in a Bath county orchard while in an apple tree and later discovered it in a mellow apple which she plucked from a tree in the garden, thus proving that the precious stone fell and lodged in a blossom and was imbedded in the apple as it developed.

THE FISHERY.

There were faint signs of life at Fishtown this morning. Two vessels were there and some work was in progress on the wharf. As has been the case in recent years, the bulk of the herring caught in the river are "struck" on the shores, placed in barrels and sent by steamers to this port, after which they are forwarded to different parts of Virginia. The steamer Anne Arundel landed 500,000 herring at this place this morning. These fish are quoted at $7.50 to $8 per thousand Shad are still selling at $50 to $60 a hundred.

SCHOOL MATTERS.

Mr. C. G. Maphis, school examiner for this district, and Mr. C. M. Robinson, architect, of Richmond, were in this city today and visited Superintendent of Schools Kemper and several of the school trustees. They had some business with the Fairfax school trustees and this evening left for Manassas on similar business. Mr. Maphis stated that he had no power nor intention of interfering with the city school board in reference to a new school building, but simply wished to talk over the matter with the trustees. Mr. Robinson said there was no such officer as school architect, but that for some years past he had made a special of school buildings. They visited the Ewing building and said that the building would do for a temporary school building. This building is now being fitted up for the four schools which have been removed from the third floor of Peabody building and will probably be opened tomorrow. The boys' school removed from Academy building will be opened in Armory Hall on Thursday morning.

Mr. Maphis said he came here on invitation of Mr. Yates but could not stop the transfer of the girls' school to the Ewing building, as he had no authority to do so.

FAIRFAX NEW SCHOOL BUILDING.

Mr. C. G. Maphis, school examiner for this district, and Mr. C. M. Robinson, architect, of Richmond, who has been engaged for some time past in preparing plans, estimates, etc., for erecting school buildings, was in the city today and met Superintendent M. D. Hall, of Fairfax, and some of the trustees of that county in reference to the erection of a school building for that county. The site of the proposed building is two acres of the Shooter's Hill property facing on the Duke street road extended and adjoining the property of the Alexandria Water Company.

PERSONAL.

Miss Mary A. Dent has returned from Maryland, where she has been visiting relatives.

Mrs. Hunter McGuire, of Richmond, is the guest of her son, Dr. Hugh McGuire, at his home on Prince street.

Miss Annie Ansley is the guest of her sister, Mrs William Albert Smoot.

Miss Christine Patterson, of Johnstown, Pa., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. P. J. Downey, at the Colonial, on north Fairfax street.

Mrs. A. A. Warfield was a visitor last week of the Misses Fisher, of Warrenton.

BELLE HAVEN AMUSEMENT CO.

Mr. John Hunter is pleasing great crowds at the hall of the Belle Haven Amusement Company with illustrated songs. Tonight and tomorrow he will sing that very comic selection, "Common Sense," in conjunction with a series of late motion picture subjects. You are in no danger while witnessing the entertainments, as the Belle Haven Company is considered one of the safest houses in the city. Go early and carry the babies. There is ample room for carriages. See advertisement.

CASE CONTINUED.

The only case before the Police Court this morning was that of a young man living in the southeastern section of this city who had been arrested on suspicion of stealing chickens from Jones's Point. The accused said he purchased the fowls from another man. In the absence of material witnesses the case was continued until tomorrow morning. The young man gave bond for his appearance at that time.

FAMILY REUNION.

The children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren of Mrs. Annie E. Knight, to the number of thirty-seven, gathered at her residence, 209 Gibbon street, yesterday in honor of her seventy-third birthday. Among the remembrances were seventy-three beautiful carnations from the grandchildren. Mrs. Knight is one of four who are left who has lived in that section of the city since 1852.

MONEY FOUND.

During a low tide last Saturday a colored man discovered a silver dollar in the sand at the outlet of the sewer at the dock at the foot of Fayette alley. Later another colored man, who had been digging in the sand, found seven silver dollars. The eight pieces were coined the same year. Other darkeys have since been digging at low tide, but no more money has been found.

Seized the Opportunity.

There were bold thieves and bold methods in the earlier days in Holborn. Here is an example:

Said a stout, asthmatic old gentleman to a well dressed stranger who was passing: "A rascal has stolen my hat. I tried to overtake him, but—I'm so out of breath—I can't stir another inch." The stranger surveyed the other with critical eye. The victim was puffing and panting as for dear life. In the pleasantest tone in the world the stranger said, "Then I'll be hanged, old boy, if I don't have your wig!" So saying, he snatched that article from the sufferer's head and departed like the wind, leaving him with head as bare as a babe's.—St. James' Gazette.

Antiquity of the Census.

The idea of the census is almost as old as history itself. King Amasis of Egypt took a census of his people 500 years before Christ. The Athenian solon established a census for the purpose of facilitating taxation. We learn that about 443 B. C. Servius Julius took a census of Rome. During the chaos of the dark ages the census dropped into oblivion, but was revived again about the beginning of the eighteenth century.

Folding a Coat.

Here is the way to fold a man's coat when you want to pack it in a box or a trunk. Lay the coat out perfectly flat, right side up. Spread the sleeves out smoothly, then fold them back to the elbow until the bottoms of the cuffs are even with the collar. Fold the revers back and double the coat over, folding it on the center seam. Smooth out all wrinkles and lay it on a level surface in the trunk.

Fifteen Dollars In Her Inside Pocket.

Madge—What did Molly mean by saying that joining the Audubon society was a good business proposition? Marjorie—The dues are only $5, while a hat with feathers on it costs at least $20.—Harper's Weekly.

His Promotion.

"So Jack's been made secretary and treasurer of the company, has he?" "Yes. He has to copy all the letters and take all the deposits to the bank, and, oh, Mary, I'm so proud of him!"—Harper's Bazar.

Calculations offer a great many interesting propositions for the studiously inclined. J. Dunk of Baltimore has compiled a rather remarkable arrangement of the title of a song from "Mlle. Modiste"—"I Want What I Want When I Want It." In the following twenty-five squares the words are so arranged that by beginning in the upper left hand corner and reading across or down, not up, the sentence can be read in 18,421 different ways, according to the arranger. There is no time this week to verify the count, but any one may do so who has leisure. Here is the arrangement:

I	Want	What	I	Want
Want	What	I	Want	When
What	I	Want	When	I
I	Want	When	I	Want
Want	When	I	Want	It

A sentence which could be read forward or backward, such as "Raw was I ere I saw war," if it had nine syllables, could be written in the same arrangement of squares and could be read in 36,842 different ways, or double the above illustration, as it could be read down from the upper left hand corner or up from the lower right hand corner.—Baltimore News.

Sorry He Spoke.

The conductor was inclined to seek for sympathy. "Do you see that woman on the left hand side of the car, up near the front?" he asked the thin man on the back platform.

"Yes, I see her."

"The one with the dizzy hat?"

"Yes."

"Well, I think she's tryin' to beat me out of a fare. When I went in to collect she never looked around, an' I ain't quite sure that she didn't pay me before, although I'm almost positive about it. She looks to me like a woman who'd be glad to stir up a fuss. I can pick 'em out as far as I can see 'em. You never spot a woman with a face like that who isn't ready to bluff her way anywhere. I wish to thunder I knew whether she had paid her fare or not."

"I wouldn't worry about it any more," said the thin man. "I paid the lady's fare some time ago. She's my wife."—Argonaut.

Live and Die on the River.

"The river population of Manila is a class by itself," said a traveler. "Not to be outdone by Canton, she has her sampans, known as cascoes and lorchas, supporting 15,000 people within the city limits, where thousands of children are born, grow, live and die on these floating cargo carriers. They never dream of any other world than that which floats about them. These boats are small, but accommodate a family of five to seven. They have a fire pot, a platform and a rice kettle. The cabin or covered portion is very small—in fact, I don't see how they live—and it is a wonder to me that the children don't fall overboard and drown. You will often see a woman sitting at the end of the boat, rowing, with a child strapped on her back, looking for all the world like a little monkey."
